

INVITE DR. DAVID REX ORGEN TO SPEAK

Practical conversations. Meaningful change.

Keynotes, workshops and emotional-wellness programs that help people understand themselves, strengthen their wellbeing and take responsible steps toward change.

WHY INVITE DR. ORGEN?

For more than twenty years, Dr. Orgen has worked with individuals, families, leaders, students, seniors, churches and communities. His presentations combine compelling stories, practical mental-health education, leadership wisdom and compassionate communication. Each presentation is shaped around the audience, culture, purpose and desired outcome.

AVAILABLE IN PERSON AND VIRTUALLY

Schools, universities, workplaces, churches, senior communities and organizations.

What audiences take away

01

Clearer understanding

Understand mental health and emotional wellness with greater clarity and less stigma.

02

Stronger relationships

Strengthen communication, leadership, self-awareness and human connection.

03

Practical action

Leave with useful steps that support healthier living, wiser leadership and responsible change.

A successful event should do more than fill a room. It should open minds and strengthen people.

Signature speaking programs

Each program is available as a 60-minute in-person or virtual presentation.
